Brainware's Accounts Payable Automation Solution receives Oracle Certification

May 5, 2008, Ashburn, VA — Brainware, Inc., the leading provider of intelligent data capture and enterprise search solutions, today announced that its AP-distiller™ solution (Distiller) has been certified for integration with Oracle E-Business Suite.

"We made the investment in Oracle certification to demonstrate our commitment to the Oracle user-community," says Carl Mergele, Brainware CEO. "By offering Oracle customers a powerful alternative to costly, manual data entry and template-based invoice processing solutions, Distiller will help finance executives drive significant cost out of their AP operations."

Distiller is Brainware's automated Accounts Payable processing solution, used by Global 2000 companies to process hundreds of millions of invoices. Built from ground up to handle unstructured data, the scalable, template-free, document-agnostic solution routinely enables over 90% field extraction rates (including line item details) "right out-of-the-box" and continues to improve automatically as it "learns" by example. In addition to yielding industry-leading extraction rates, Distiller includes a full suite of functions for truly "touch-less" invoice processing, including: 2- and 3-way matching, approval routing, GL coding, KPI monitoring, and reporting.
